ANTIRAGGING CELL

Andhra Loyola College, Vijayawada, aims at fostering a safe and inclusive learning environment for students. The College emphasizes zero tolerance towards any form of harassment, bullying, or intimidation among students. By enforcing anti-ragging rules, the college ensures the physical and emotional well-being of its students, promoting a conducive atmosphere for academic growth and personal development. These measures not only uphold ethical standards but also contribute to building a culture of respect, empathy, and camaraderie within the college community, enhancing the overall educational experience.

GUIDELINES:

- Under the UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009.
- Andhra Loyola College strictly observes the provisions of the Act of the Central and the State government on Ragging.
- Ragging a cognizable offence under the law on a par with rape and other atrocities against women and ill-treatment of persons belonging to the SC,ST and prohibiting ragging in all its forms in the institution.
- Andhra Loyola College takes strict action against those found guilty of ragging and/or of abetting ragging

The establishment of anti-ragging committees at the collegiate level is a critical measure to safeguard student welfare. Ragging, often veiled as innocuous initiation practices, can evolve into severe physical and psychological trauma, adversely impacting students' academic performance and mental health. These committees function as a proactive deterrent, fostering a nurturing and respectful campus environment. By implementing stringent policies and establishing channels for reporting incidents, they empower students to voice concerns regarding any form of harassment or bullying. This fosters a culture of inclusivity and mutual respect within the college community.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Prevent all forms of ragging in educational institutions.
2. Educate students on what constitutes ragging and its consequences.
3. Foster a culture of respect and inclusivity on campus.

4. Empower students to report ragging incidents without fear.
5. Enforce strict anti-ragging policies and punish offenders.
6. Conduct awareness programs to highlight the negative effects of ragging.
7. Maintain vigilance and conduct surprise inspections to deter ragging.
8. Provide counselling and support services to victims of ragging.
9. Collaborate with authorities to ensure effective implementation of anti-ragging laws.
10. Promote a safe and welcoming environment for all students.

CLAUSE 9.1
