The Women's Cell at Andhra Loyola College focuses on promoting gender equality, preventing sexual harassment, and providing support services for female students and faculty.

The specific policies of the Women's Cell may include:

Prevention of Sexual Harassment:

Implementing a zero-tolerance policy towards sexual harassment and providing mechanisms for reporting incidents confidentially.

Awareness Programs:

Organizing workshops, seminars, and awareness campaigns to educate the college community about gender issues, women's rights, and laws related to sexual harassment.

Counselling Services:

Offering counselling and support services to students and faculty who have experienced gender-based discrimination, harassment, or violence.

Creating Safe Spaces:

Ensuring that the college campus is a safe and inclusive environment for women by addressing issues such as lighting, security, and access to resources.

Policy Advocacy:

Advocating for gender-sensitive policies and practices within the college administration and working towards creating a more gender-equitable campus culture.

Empowerment Initiatives:

Organizing leadership development programs, mentorship opportunities, and skill-building workshops to empower female students and faculty members.

Collaboration with External Agencies:

Collaborating with external organizations, NGOs, and government agencies working on women's rights issues to enhance support services and advocacy efforts.

These policies are aimed at creating an environment where women feel safe, respected, and empowered to pursue their academic and professional goals.

Facilities at ALC:

The Women's Cell is dedicated to fostering a secure and nurturing atmosphere for female students. A designated Women's Cell Coordinator oversees the well-being of female students, offering guidance and support as needed.

For the convenience of our female day-scholars, we provide a spacious waiting hall comprising three large halls equipped with lockers. Additionally, our Day Scholar Centre boasts approximately 50-60 toilets with uninterrupted water availability.

To cater to the menstrual hygiene needs of our students, we offer a vending machine stocked with sanitary pads. Furthermore, in our waiting hall, we maintain a disposal machine for the safe and hygienic disposal of used sanitary pads.

Ensuring privacy and comfort, separate restroom facilities for girls are available in every building across the campus.

For immediate assistance, a dedicated female nurse is available round the clock, ensuring prompt support for any concerns or emergencies encountered by female students.
